PROFILE

Communications professional with over 12 years across agency, in-house and newsroom roles in Singapore and the Philippines. In Singapore, developed launch content and messaging for the Online Safety Commission and IMDA, explaining online harms, reporting pathways and new age-assurance rules to the public, and wrote regional campaigns for the NBA and Trust Bank. Previously ran editorial standards for a multi-publication content operation clearing 50+ projects a month, managed internal communications for a 3,000-employee healthcare group, and reported on politics and platform abuse for Esquire Philippines. Bilingual in English and Tagalog.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Creative

Iris Singapore (Cheil Worldwide) | Singapore | May 2022 – November 2026

- Developed launch content and messaging for Singapore's Online Safety Commission and IMDA's age assurance measures: public-facing explainers, leaflets, infographics and video scripts on online harms and reporting.
- Wrote and adapted regional campaigns for NBA APAC, localising newsletter, event and promotional copy for audiences in Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines and Japan.
- Led copy for Trust Bank's Cashback Card launch in Singapore across digital, social and out-of-home channels, within financial-services compliance review; copy lead on the launch of GoTyme Bank in the Philippines.
- Contributed to Iris's Temasek corporate website proposal, including tone-of-voice guidance.

Senior Content Marketing Editor

Summit Media | Philippines | September 2019 – October 2021

- Led editorial standards for branded content across Esquire, Top Gear, Spot.ph and Spin.ph, reviewing and approving 50+ projects a month against editorial policy, brand guidelines and commercial requirements.
- Built and maintained the style guides and content frameworks that kept standards consistent across multiple teams and publications.
- Mediated between editors and brand partners on contested or sensitive content, making judgment calls on complex and ambiguous cases.
- Delivered campaigns for Toyota, Samsung and Chivas Regal against engagement targets of 20,000+ page views per campaign; supervised writers and set editorial direction.

Internal Communications

Unilab, Inc. (United Laboratories Health Group) | Philippines | November 2018 – September 2019

- Managed internal and corporate communications for a 3,000-employee healthcare group, and served as managing editor of Bayanihan Magazine, the quarterly company publication.
- Ran employer branding campaigns and employee engagement communications; set messaging and editorial direction for corporate campaigns in line with organisational priorities.

Associate Features Editor

Esquire Philippines (Summit Media) | Philippines | May 2016 – November 2018

- Reported and edited stories carrying legal and political exposure, including investigations into non-consensual intimate image sharing on social platforms and the editing war over Philippine martial-law history on Wikipedia. Both drew national attention.

- Interviewed politicians, officials and public figures during the Duterte administration, and worked daily with in-house and agency PR teams on access, embargoes and coverage.
- Wrote and produced the Eddie Garcia "What I've Learned" interview, Esquire Philippines' most-viewed editorial original to date.
- Covered culture, style and current affairs for the print and digital editions of a nationally distributed magazine.

Copywriter and Advertorial Lead

Summit Media | Philippines | January 2014 – April 2016

- Led branded content across six national titles (Esquire, Top Gear, Forbes, Men's Health, FHM, Entrepreneur) in the capacity of managing editor, managing a team of writers, artists and producers from brief to publication.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Communications Technology Management

Ateneo de Manila University | Philippines | 2009 – 2013

- Major in integrated marketing communications; minor in entrepreneurship (accelerator programme). Member of The GUIDON, the university's official student publication.
